

Touch-a-Truck

Touch, climb and explore various vehicles during Touch-a-Truck Saturday, May 31, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on the north side of Germantown Community Library at 1925 Exeter Road.

Kids can get behind the wheel of their favorite vehicles, including a fire truck, police car, ambulance, bulldozer, crane and other unique equipment. Admission is free.

"We are actually having four events in one on May 31," said library director Melody Pittman. "In addition to Touch-a-Truck, we are also kicking off our summer reading program, library supporters are hosting a book sale, and Germantown Women's Club will serve concessions to raise money for the library. There will be something for the entire family at the library," Pittman said.

The 2008 library summer reading program Around the World in 62 Days is open for registration from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. The self-paced program for children encourages reading with drawings for weekly prizes and other activities. More details on the program are available at www.germantown-tn.gov or www.germantown-library.org.

Friends of Germantown Community Library will host a patio book sale from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Book donations are being accepted at the library during regular hours. Proceeds from the sale benefit the library. For more information, contact the Library at 757-7323.
